MEAT MARKETS

Among the first meat markets operated in Heber was the one d by Tom Clotworthy and Heber G. Crook in 1891. The Hicken ers, Addison and John, then bought out the interests of Mr. Crook 92 and formed Clotworthy and Hicken, which continued until 1898 the Hicken brothers bought Mr. Clotworthy's interests and the store e Hicken Brothers Butcher Shop. This store was located on the side of Main Street at Center Street. Later they sold the site for

F. O. Buell's store which was built in 1894. Shown in this picture, taken in 1902, are F. O. Buell and clerks in front of the store and Owen and Golda Buell in the delivery wagon on the street. To the north of the building is the old Social Hall built in 1873.
